Now the LORD said to Abram, “Go forth from your country, And from your relatives And from your father's house, To the land which I will show you” (Genesis 12:1; emphasis added). We know, however, that it took years for Abram to be separated from his father; and when it did occur, it was the result of death rather than of deliberate obedience. Next it was Lot from whom Abram was reluctant to separate. In chapter 21 there was the painful act of sending away Ishmael, a son deeply loved by Abraham. In chapter 22 Abraham has come to his ultimate test. Abraham was an elderly man, and Sarah was soon to die. Abraham's love was now focused upon Isaac, who after chapter 21 is his only son (22:2). God has brought Abraham to the point where he must give priority to either his faith or his family. The greatest test of his faith now confronts Abraham.

1. In Genesis chapter 21 God tells Abraham to listen to his wife Sarah and send away his son Ishmael. What does God ask Abraham to do to Isaac, his son of the promise in chapter 22?

Where is the lamb as we go to sacrifice? (The wood for the fire of the altar is ready, The fire is ready, The Holy Spirit is ready, but where is the sacrifice? Where is your heart?)
